

JOHN JORGENSEN, President & CEO, The Sylint Group, Inc.

Mr. John Jorgensen, the President and CEO of The Sylint Group, formerly worked over 25 years for and with the National Security Agency and has provided management and inspiration at Sylint for 20 years. The Sylint Group is composed of 30 employees with US government, Intelligence Community, military and law enforcement background. Sylint provides computer systems and signals forensic analysis, evidentiary data recovery and collection, data analysis, computer security systems specification, guidance and implementation, and Counter Cyber Warfare expertise. Sylint provides litigation support to include technical data recovery and reconstruction, deposition question assistance, 26(f) and Meet & Confer guidance, Affidavit and Motion preparation and electronic investigation and data search. Mr. Jorgensen has served as Special Master to the Court, serves as an Expert Witness in both Federal and local Judicial jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters and has overseen the computer forensic analysis in over 2,100 successful cases. Sylint's clients include Fortune 100 companies, AM 100 Law firms, state governments, utilities, FBI, IRS, Secret Service, the Federal Government and are Payment Card Industry Certified Forensic Investigators and NSA Accredited Incident Response providers. Mr. Jorgensen provides six to twelve presentations per year to the American Bar Association, Federal Judges, Florida Bar Association, RSA and guest lectures annually at both Ave Maria and Nova Law Schools.